

*Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF)
Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act*

Acknowledgement:

Rivertown School of Beauty, Barber, Skin Care & Nails signed and returned to the Department of Education the Certification and Agreement on April 16, 2020 that the institution intends to use the funds to cover any costs associated with significant changes to the delivery of instruction due to the coronavirus so long as such costs do not include payment to contractors for the provision of pre-enrollment recruitment activities, including marketing and advertising; endowments; or capital outlays associated with facilities related to athletics, sectarian instruction, or religious worship (collectively referred to as “Recipient’s Institutional Costs”).

Award:

Rivertown School of Beauty, Barber, Skin Care & Nails received a total of $348,039.00 under Section 18004(a) (1) of the HEERF (Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund). Student Aid $174,020.00 and Institutional Aid $174,019.00.

Funds Distributed:

Rivertown School of Beauty, Barber, Skin Care & Nails has not distributed funds for Institutional Aid of $174,019.00 under the section 18004 (a) (1) of the CARES Act at this time.

Method Used to Determine the use of Institutional Aid under the section 18004 (a) (1) Cares Act:

Rivertown School of Beauty, Barber, Skin Care & Nails intends to use the funds for lost revenue.

To cover any costs associated with significant changes to the delivery of instruction due to the coronavirus so long as such costs do not include payment to contractors for the provision of pre-enrollment recruitment activities, including marketing and advertising; endowments; or capital outlays associated with facilities related to athletics, sectarian instruction, or religious worship (collectively referred to as “Recipient’s Institutional Costs”).

Rivertown School of Beauty, Barber, Skin Care & Nails may use the funds for Recipient’s Institutional Costs to purchase equipment or software, pay for online licensing fees, or pay for internet service to enable students to transition to distance learning as such costs are associated with a significant change in the delivery of instruction due to the coronavirus. Additionally, institutions that purchased computers or other equipment to donate or provide to students on or after March 13, 2020, the date of the Proclamation of National Emergency, may reimburse themselves for such computers or other equipment from the funds for Recipient’s Institutional Costs.

Rivertown School of Beauty, Barber, Skin Care & Nails may use the funds for Recipient’s Institutional Costs received through the HEERF under Sections 18004(a)(1) and 18004(c) of the CARES Act to make additional emergency financial aid grants to students, provided that such emergency financial aid grants are for expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus (including eligible expenses under a student’s cost of attendance, such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and child care).

Instructions, Directions, or Guidance concerning the Recipient’s Institutional Costs
